

I signed up of the do not call list as soon as it was available. I then, after two years, re-signed up. My phone rings only with calls with whom I do business. Please leave the Wisconsin Do not call law as is. It works and I do not want to be exposed to telemarketing from a businesses or its affiliates simply because I have had contact with the business. Thank you for your consideration.